A rapid rescore is a service offered by some lenders, including banks and credit unions, to request a fresh and current version of your credit report in a matter of days. This is considerably quicker than the monthly timeline in which your credit is commonly updated.

How a Rapid Rescore Affects Your Credit - Lexington Law

It's Not Credit Repair Rapid rescoring isn't credit repair—it's just an express lane for getting information to credit bureaus. You can't dispute anything and everything that brings down your score (unless everything is inaccurate), and the service won't help you negotiate settlements with creditors.

Rapid Rescoring Can Raise Credit Scores Quickly

Founded in February of 2011, Rapid Restore Credit Repair primary objective at that time was to provide a solution for the many families and individuals facing credit hardship after the Mortgage Crisis and Great Recession from 2007-2010. Our main focus was to help families and individuals recover after financial hardship.
